Birthday: October 13, 1941

While at Dunbar:

Melvin was the star forward on several championship Basketball teams. He played in the Band, and was a member of the Student Council, the Jr. Red Cross, and the Hi-Y.

Since Dunbar:

Melvin served four years of active duty with the U.S. Air Force, as a medical corpsman. This led to an active civilian career in the medical field, including 20 years at Georgetown University as a Lab Technician. In retirement he continues to pursue that interest, working part-time for Home Instead Senior Care which provides services to senior citizens.

Proudest Accomplishment:

Seeing his son graduate from college and going on to play professional basketball in Mexico.
