

periences, she was commissioned by the Indianapolis Museum of Arts to design the 'Dress of the Century,' presented at the celebration of their 100th birthday in 1983. She designed the uniforms for the Colts' Cheerleaders, the Pacers' Cheerleaders, and the Flight Nurses, who fly the helicopters for Methodist Hospital, plus designing the prize gown for the Miss Black America Pageant. Additionally, she has been Coordinator and Commentator for the Indianapolis Symphony Women's Fashion Extravaganza and for the Indiana Women's and Children's Apparel Club. Her clothes have been carried by the Davidson's Indiana Fur Company in the Glendale mall.

Mrs. Blackburn's honor and recognition include an award for the Professionals (a modeling troupe), 'Designer of the Year' by the Flamingo's (a civic and social club), 'Designer of the Year,' and a recipient of Harvey's Bristol Cream Tribute to Black Designers. Her mother, Mrs. Minnie Coles resides in Lynchburg, Virginia.

LINCOLN I. DIUGUID

Education and Chemical Research

Dr. Diuguid is a graduate of Dunbar High School (1934). He also graduated from West Virginia State College magna cum laude and Cornell University. His field of study at these institutions was Organic Chemistry.

Dr. Diuguid's professional experiences include: teaching Chemistry at various colleges; Research Associate in Organic Chemistry at Cornell University; and Research Associate at Jewish Hospital in St. Louis, Missouri (Leukemia Research). Additionally, he is the founder of the Du-Good Chemical Laboratory in St. Louis. The Staff has developed a number of useful products, such as waterless hand cleaner, detergent, liniment, after shave, pincurl creme, and a facial creme. He has trained over 100 young black chemists in the laboratory and has assisted many blacks in getting jobs as chemists.

Dr. Diuguid is the author or co-author of some scientific articles that have been published in such periodicals as Journal of the American Chemical Society, Annals of Biochemistry, and Journal of Clinical Medicine. Also, he has presented papers at scientific meetings.

Dr. Diuguid is a member of the Board of Directors, Leukemia Guild of Missouri and Illinois, and had been the recipient of the Carver Civic Award. He is listed in American Men of Science, Chemical Who's Who, and Who's Who in Technology.

CHRISTOPHER F. EDLEY

Attorney and President of United Negro College Fund

Mr. Edley was educated in the public Schools of Lynchburg, Virginia, graduating from Dunbar High School in 1945. He earned an B.A. degree from Howard University in 1949 magna cum laude. He graduated from Harvard Law School in 1953 with an LL.B degree.

Mr. Edley assumed his present position as president and chief executive officer of the United Negro College Fund, in 1973. In this position he is responsible for raising funds and dispensation of monies to the 44 colleges and universities supported by the U.M.C.F.